Farm and Facility

We take care any single step of processing

We focus on farms. We cooperate with farmers for 30 hecta farms of dragon fruit, durian, passion fruit and rambutan which are cultivated under GAP standards and approved by US FDA.

We control transportation during whole process. We ensure that fruits will be kept cool from farms to packing house. It's a key factor to keep shelf-life of fruits longer. By our own container trailer, it makes us control fruits temperature cooling continuously from packing houses to ports.

We set up packing house in optimal places. Our main packing house is located in Tien Giang province, Mekong Delta – a kingdom of fruits in Vietnam. We built it there in purpose of cutting short time of delivery fruits from farms to our packing within 12 hours to keep its best freshness. Another packing house in Ho Chi Minh city is very near the airport which is set up as connected station for produce from many regions. That's why we can easily diversify our range of products to meet any requirements of customers.

WHY choose us

We commit to provide you delight services.

Our qualified and courteous staff is always available to customers for any type of requirements. By our experience on this field, we well know about markets demand and how to keep fruits at its freshness.

We constantly keep motivations and updates.

We step by step diversify our products and its packing which is more convenient for consumers. That's reason why we always satisfy our clients from wholesalers to retailers, such as supermarkets, restaurants, hotels, hospitals and catering organizations.

WHY choose us

We control whole process from farms to ports.

We have sufficient facilities with packing houses, farms, fleet of cooling vans and containers trucks so that we take control whole production from farms to ports which are best way to prolong fruits shelf life.

We have been doing production at high standards with competitive cost.

By opening packing house at main harvested regions, we can be confident that we can supply premium products with very good price to customers.
